BACKGROUND & EXPERIENCE

Kaunas Bernardas Brazdžionis school is named after a famous Lithuanian poet, Lithuanian prose writer, playwright, press worker, museologist, literary critic. One of the supposed nicknames: Vytė Nemunėlis.

Kaunas Bernardas Brazdžionis School is located in the central part of Lithuania. About 319,000 people live in Kaunas. The second largest city is located at the confluence of the two rivers Nėris and Nemunas, near one of the oldest brick castles in Lithuania. Kaunas Bernard Brazdžionis School started the Erasmus+ program activities from 2022. The school also successfully implements projects of the eTwinning program, the teachers have earned international and national eTwinning quality badges.

Our school operates in two buildings, which gives the school more colors and opportunities. About 680 students study at school, where students from various nations, religions, and continents learn there.
